(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETEIRSBURG, VA., June 20.—The newly elected councilmen who did not participate in the recent caucus of the Council will present to that body tomorrow afternoon a long communication setting forth the reasons why that body should not elect the city officers who were nominated at the caucus. Mr George S. Bernard will represent the councilmen-elect. Much interest is being taken in the coming proceedings, as it is said that some of the officers who would be elected by the present Council would not be elected by the new Council to Sentember.

cil would not be elected by the new Council in September.

DANGEROUS CROOK.

Deputy United States Marshal Bendit identified John McBride, the alleged tramp, lo-day as "New York Blackey." Mr. Bendit says the prisoner is a dangerous and desperate crook, and that the officer who arrested him was fortunated in not being shot by him.

Robert Wilkins, a colored Eaplist preacher, living near Jarratt, Va., was arrested in Petersburg yesterday afterspon on the charge of stealing a cow, which he sold to a butcher in this city, Junius Johnson, a colored farmer, also living near Jarratt, has identified the cow as his property. Wilkins, when arrested, living near Jarratt, has identified the cow as his property. Wilkins, when arrested, had a Bible in one pocket and a pint of whiskey in the other. The negro was sent on for trial by the Hustings Court. BOAT CLUB.

Against Electric Railway.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHESTERFIELD, VA., June 30.—The suit of W. O. Wakins vs. the Richmond and Petersburg Electric Railway Company, begun in the Circuit Court yellerday, resulted to-day in a verdict of $2,550 for the plsintiff. The suit was for the forfeiture on the part of the failway company, for failuge to construct a certain railway crossing from the farm of Mr. Wakins over the company's track, into the Petersburg turnpike. In November, 1901, the County Court entered an order directing the Electric Railway Company to open certain wagon ways from Ampthill farm into the turnpike road, agreeable to the recommendations of viewers appointed by the court in proceedings for the purpose. The company compiled with the court's order, except that at one of the points designated, where the approach to the railway was difficult, no grading

The new line takes workmen to Newport News for a five-cent fare, which puts laboring men on an equal footing with Hampton men. It is thought the new company will have its trestle completed to Old Point and its cars running there in about sixty days.

L. O. O. F.

Chesapeake Lodge, No. 91, I. O. O. F., is arranging to consolidate with and become part and parcel of Old Point Lodge, No. 144. This will make one of the strongest lodges in the State, with about two hundred and fifty members. Old Point Lodge will install its officers next Wednesday night, July 6th.

Mr. C. W. Morriss, of Richmond, grand master of Virginia, has been invited to publicly install the officers of Greble Lodge, No. 137. Thursday night, July 7th. This will be quite an elaborate affair, as several prominent Odd-Fellows are expected to take part in the work. Refreshments will be served.
